

What if I am a shy person? Will I be forced to participate?

Participation is encouraged but not forced. People only get from the workshop what they are willing to put in. Progress is an individual thing. Some really go the whole 9 yards while some are more timid. That's OK. Nobody will force anyone to be or do anything.